

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Margaret Donahue has devoted her life to the betterment of her community, the caring and sharing with family and friends, and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, Margaret Donahue has reached her 100th birthday, an occasion of joy and celebration; and,

WHEREAS, Margaret has given much to South Dakota during her lifetime and it is fitting that we honor Margaret on this momentous occasion; and,

WHEREAS, On behalf of a state grateful for the benefits derived from Margaret Donahue's years as a productive and outstanding citizen of South Dakota:

I, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 17, 1987, as in South Dakota, and I join her many friends and relatives in wishing Margaret a very happy birthday and many more years of health and happiness.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twelfth Day of August, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

GEORGE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
